

When starting your family history who do you start with?

Answer: Yourself

Looking at your Pedigree Chart, find where your Grandparents on your Father's side were married?

When was your Great Grandpa on your Mother's side born?

Did any of your ancestors serve in a War? Which War? Who served?

What are the four most common records to research?

Answer: Census, Vital, Land, Probate

Where was your Great Great Grandma on your Father's side born?

Where were your parents married?

Did any of your ancestors come to America from a different country? Which ancestor? Which country?